

A. P. Dickman

November 5, 2005

Written by Farrah Jimenez

Above is the A. P. Dickman House

Manatee River and has several pretty trees. The A.P. Dickman house is in a residential neighborhood right by the commercial district of Ruskin. The A. P. Dickman house is being used for a home. It is important to keep the A.P. Dickman house there because it is a historical place in Ruskin, Florida.

The name of this beautiful building is the A. P. Dickman House. The year the structure was built was in 1908. It was built by A. P. Dickman and his family. The address of the A. P. Dickman house is 120 Dickman Drive S.W. Ruskin, Florida.

The characteristics of Victorian architecture is the spindles on the porches. They have tower's they also have a full width porch. It has balconies and a hip roof. This house is called painted ladies.

The reason it was built was because Mr. Dickman and his brothers needed a wonderful place to live. It was built for Mr. Dickman and his family. The house is big, old and quite beautiful. The house is by the Ruskin Inlet which is part of the Little

This house could be considered a Folk Victorian house because of its combination of colors. The reason why it is important to save the A.P. Dickman house is because then some of Ruskin's history would be preserved.

*Created by the students in Mr. Dunn's fifth grade class.
Cypress Creek Elementary School*