The name of the building shown above is the L. L. Dickman House. The L. L. Dickman house was built in the year 1910. The address of the L. L. Dickman house is 416 US Highway 41 South Ruskin, Florida 33570.

The L. L. Dickman house has picnic tables in the front of the structure. It is very pretty because it has palm trees and attractive plants around it. It has a wonderful balcony.

The building provides services to a local church. It has a gorgeous sun room on the left side of the house. The building is a delicate peach color. The house has about 36 windows. The house has a white bus on the side that is used for serving the local community.

The L. L. Dickman house was built for Mr. L. L. Dickman and his family to live in. Long after the L. L. Dickman family lived in the house it became a the location of t h e

Ruskin RCMA who was kind enough to let my class take a guided tour the building. There are a multitude of offices located within the building.

The structure looks like a prism and it is a peach color. It has tall stairs that are a rectangular shape. There are plants, signs, palm trees, a big tree, picnic tables, bushes and shrubs around this attractive building.

The L. L. Dickman House is across the street from Chamber of Commerce and The Lyle Dickman house. The L. L. Dickman House is now being used for a RCMA which serves the Ruskin community in many wonderful ways.

This craftsman bungalow is an all American house style but it has its roots in India. The way you know it is a bungalow is it's roof is coming off the building with boarders holding it up. Another way you can tell it is a bungalow is when it has a balcony on either side of the house. Bungalow houses are very beautiful in style.

This is an important building because it is a very old house and we want to help it stay up. It has many outstanding features. We need to keep protecting it and keep it in good shape like it is now. The L. L. Dickman house is one of the prettiest and cleanest historic houses in Ruskin.
