

The Ruskin Theater
November 5, 2005
Written by Alberto Acevedo

The photo above is the Ruskin Theater. The Ruskin Theater was a very popular place for Residents of Ruskin to watch movies.

The name of this building is The Ruskin Theater. It is an example of Mediterranean style architecture. See the large, simple polygon shapes?

This building was built sometime in the 1940's for the people in the community to socialize and enjoy themselves. The price of a movie, popcorn, and soda was very cheap back then.

The address of the Theater is 408 Highway 41 North Ruskin, Florida 33572.

The Ruskin Theater is located in Downtown Ruskin, in the heart of the commercial district.

It is important to save this building because if we don't save the building we will lose a part of the history of Ruskin.

The Ruskin Theater is in danger of being destroyed. This would be bad. I hope that it does not happen.