Tour of Ruskin Historical Homes

503 Tamiami Trail - U.S. Hwy 41 S. - Ruskin, Florida 33570

The George M. Miller House, constructed in 1914 as the residence for the President of Ruskin College, is listed in the National Register of Historic Places for its social/humanitarian and architectural significance. Miller served as the president of the small agriculturally-oriented cooperative college until his death in 1918.

120 Dickman Drive S. W. Ruskin, Fl 33570

Landmarked by Hillsborough County, the A. P. Dickman House Built in 1910 entirely out of heart pine, the house was the first finished wood structure in South Hillsborough County. . Asymmetrical massing, a varied roof silhouette, and a corner tower recall the late nineteenth century picturesque tradition of the Queen Ann; the Tuscan columned double tiered gallery with its graceful turned balustrade is Colonial Revival in derivation.

416 U.S. Highway 41 S. - Ruskin, Florida 33570

The L. L. Dickman House was erected in 1910 for the Ruskin founder and is one of the three major structures associated with the utopian community to survive. The generously proportioned house shows the stylistic influence of Charles A. F. Voysey, the English architect who popularized a revival of English, vernacular architecture. The sweeping gable roof, simple, uncluttered lines, ranges of casement windows and substantial massing are all hallmarks of Voysey's Arts and Crafts style

301 US Highway 41 N. Ruskin, Florida 33570

Built in 1946, the Lyle Dickman house was the childhood home of Paul, Ned and Glenn Dickman.

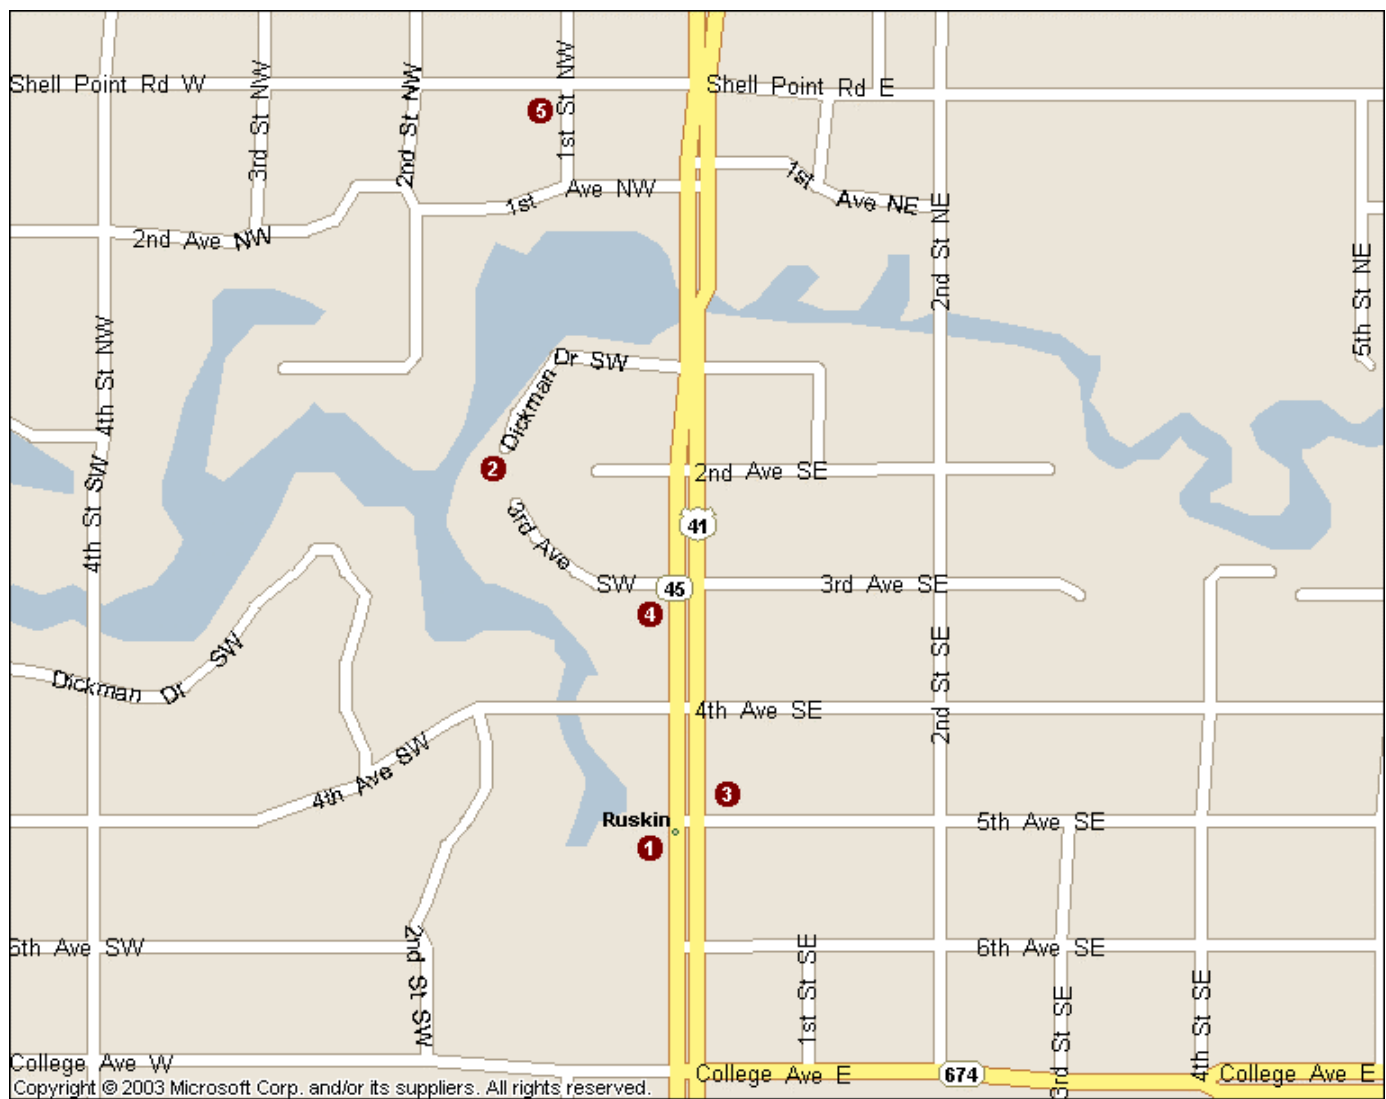

The building is now being used at the business location for Southern Grace Gifts.

102 West Shell Point Road Ruskin, Florida 33570

The Willis House was built around 1925 and was home to the Willis family.

Today it is the business location for the Ruskin Bay Company Upscale Eatery.
